Interactions with Children Guidelines

The National Quality Standard requires education and care to be provided in a way that:
- encourages the children to express themselves and their opinions
- allows the children to undertake experiences that develop self-reliance and self-esteem
- maintains at all times the dignity and rights of each child
- gives each child positive guidance and encouragement towards acceptable behaviour
- has regard to the family and cultural values, age, and physical and intellectual development and abilities of each child

We must also provide children with opportunities to interact and develop respectful and positive relationships with each other, educators and with volunteers at our preschools.

To ensure that all educators at Maribyrnong Preschool deliver education and care that meet the above guidelines, the following actions have been agreed upon:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>The children are encouraged to express themselves and their opinions</th>
<th>The children are encouraged to undertake experiences that develop self-reliance and self-esteem</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>What we would see</td>
<td>What we would hear</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Activities that encourage structured opportunities for talking between children including small group and partner learning experiences</td>
<td>“What do you think?”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Educators take every opportunity to ask probing, clarifying and open-ended questions</td>
<td>“I really want to hear about that in a minute/outside/after lunch” (This might be used for children who are dominating the conversation or have raised inappropriate topics and need to be redirected)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>An environment that stimulates the sharing of ideas</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Educators showing genuine interest in the lives and experiences of the children and their families</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Processes in place to support respectful turn-taking, such as using a talking stick</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Opportunities are provided for children to engage in experiences that challenge their fundamental movement skills within the preschool and also as part of primary school events such as the Walkathon</td>
<td>“Have a Go”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Activities are open-ended so all children can participate and feel successful</td>
<td>Reinforcing and supportive language</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Children are encouraged to help with ‘real-life’ tasks including cleaning, organising materials, setting up and toileting</td>
<td>Praise</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Educators acknowledge and praise individual achievements with positive words or a smile.</td>
<td>Descriptive and explicit feedback – “I love the way you used your legs to push yourself up”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>What we would see</td>
<td>What we would hear</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>--------------------</td>
<td>--------------------</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| At all times the dignity and rights of each child are maintained | Educators helping children to maintain their privacy when dealing with accidents (including toileting accidents)
Educators have an awareness of the individual needs or concerns of each child, such as what makes them upset
Educators take into consideration how children may react to any given situation
Educators are aware of legal requirements such as Mandatory Reporting | Adult to child interactions will be comforting, nurturing and respectful
Educators talking to parents about their child |
| Each child is given positive guidance and encouragement toward acceptable behaviour | Educators never label children, but rather label the behaviour
Educators employ the strategies and language of Choice Theory
Arrangements and modifications are made to the program as required to meet the individual needs of all children
External support and guidance is sought as required
Educators engage in open, honest and respectful communication with parents about the needs of their children, and how they could support their development at home
Class principles/guidelines are developed with the children and referred to regularly to help them regulate their own behaviour
Educators interact with children at their physical level and in a manner that is not physically intimidating | Using language of ‘choice’
Children are offered binary choices to guide them in their behaviour
Educators talking to parents about their child |
| The family and cultural values, age, and physical and intellectual development and abilities of each child is taken into account | Displays around the preschool environment are particularly relevant to the cultural background of the group and include other cultures to encourage diversity and understanding
Parental input to the program focussing on the family background, interests and culture
Inviting parents, carers and extended family members to share in the day to day preschool experiences
Providing time and space for children to rest as required
The inside and outside environment challenges all levels of ability, with scaffolding provided as required | Educators celebrating every child’s personal best
“Tell me what happens in your family”
Regular conversations with parents and family members |
| Children are provided with opportunities to interact and develop respectful and positive relationships with each other, with educators and with volunteers at our preschools. | Educators will role model and role play appropriate social interactions and conventions such as using manners, showing respect
Social skills are explicitly taught in small, manageable steps and shared with families
Educators /child interactions are always respectful
Positive interactions with the wider school community such as Buddies and attending school events | Polite/respectful interactions from educators
Reminders of appropriate language
Educators would hear the children taking turns in their conversations with other children and educators |